UP 'BRIDG'

We welcome Bridgwater and Albion this evening and anticipate our usual hard game with them. Last season when we visited them in October, they surprised us by putting 2 goals and a try across us, our team being P. Hardy, H. Adams, R. Pinder, G.Addenbrooke, R. Jones, C. Weston, G. Sidoli, J. Roberts, F. Hill, T. Smith, J. Dingle, F. Thomas, J. Vaissiere, J. Kendall Carpenter, E. Hopton. Bridgwater has, of course, for many years been the home of Somerset rugby, all the rugger business of the county was, for a number of years carried on there by the late Frank West, either as President or Hon. Secretary and the present President, W. H. Tamlyn Esq., M.B.E., J.P. In years gone by what a hot bed of rugby the brick town was. One often wondered how it was possible for such a small place to turn out two such sides as Bridgwater Albion and Bridgwater Town, but it did, and Bath, in the days before the first great war often knew it.

THE SEVENS.

Many must have been very disappointed last evening when they found that Bath Harlequins had withdrawn from the tournament unable to put seven out to meet Combe Down, who will not now be called on until next Tuesday and by winning then will go straight to the semi final. As a number of ruggerites will remark "The Down always were lucky!"

The Sevens' Tournament for the Colmer Cup has been running since 1929—excluding war years—so that this year's is the 20th. The winners have been 1929 Walcot O.B.: 1930 Old Edwardians: 1931 Combe Down 1932 Walcot O.B.: 1933 Avonvale: 1934 Combe Down: 1935 Combe Down: 1936 Chippenham: 1937 Chippenham: 1938 Avonvale: 1939 Combe Down: 1947 Avonvale: 1948 Old Sulians: 1949 Avonvale: 1950 R.A.F. Yatesbury: 1951 R.A.F. Yatesbury: 1952 R.A.F. Yatesbury: 1953 R.A.F. Compton Bassett. 1954 R.A.F. Compton Bassett.

THE MEMORIAL DEDICATION SERVICE.

On Wednesday next—the evening of the finals—the Archdeacon will hold a short service at 6 p.m. to dedicate the plaque placed on the wall of the Club Room balcony to the memory of the many rugby players of Bath and District who fell in the two great wars. The Rev. A. F. Kitching was invited to give a short address—the service will only last about 15 mins.—but regrets he will be away from Bath. He writes "I feel you have done me a great honour in asking me and I thank you very much for doing so".
