ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL.

Once again we are pleased to welcome the Medicos from Paddington, knowing full well what to expect from them—a fast, open and enjoyable game for players and spectators alike. Although our visitors have won only 2 of our last 17 games with them, and Bath have won 11, we must be prepared for anything to happen to-day, for the doctors defeated the Harlequins last week, and we most probably shall miss both Tony Guest and Frank Harrison. But whatever happens, we may be sure our visitors will play fast open rugby to delight our supporters, as they always have done. We hope they have L. Cannell, their English centre, with them, although he will give us trouble, no doubt, and will take a lot of holding. Last season here we won by a penalty goal and a try to a try, Guest getting the try and Sullivan the goal. It was in 1948 that St. Mary's last won here, and very deservedly too, by 20 points to 9, the Bath side being: Les Moores, A. M. Wenyon, W. Williams, T. Hicks, K. John, K. Wilcox, M. Hanna, G. A. Reid, W. Barrow, T. Smith, L. S. Harter, V. Northam, A. Lewis, P. Ryan, W. A. Todd. Of these our Tom Smith is probably the only one playing first-class rugby to-day. How well he is lasting.

LAST WEEK.

Our game here last week must have disappointed many of our supporters, but it must be admitted that luck was not with Bath. They had an unfortunate beginning, and never recovered. Malcolm Smith would have made a difference—those who saw him the week before will surely agree, and the injury to Guest and Harrison was most unfortunate. Everyone will sympathise with both, and hope that they will not be out as long as has been predicted.

At the same time we must congratulate the Services. They played real good rugby, and if Bath had not been as unlucky as they were, it is doubtful if they would have avoided defeat; for the visitors appear to have the best side they have had for years. And, as Joe Bailey would say, "Good luck to them!"

NEXT WEEK.

Next week's match, v. the Harlequins, is to be played at the White City. Neither players nor spectators will enthuse very much over this, and we at home will be watching the United v. Yeovil. With Guy Addenbrooke back among them, the United will assuredly give a far better display than against Abergavenny, and it is hoped there will be a good crowd to support them.
