The London Irish.

We extend a hearty welcome to our Irish friends from London and expect them to give us a really good hard game. They have been doing very well this season, our boys will have to be on their toes today.

Last Week.

The First XV. gave an excellent account of themselves at Neath last Saturday losing only by a drop goal. The record is not impressive this season but several games have been lost by the odd three points. Here at Bath the United XV. recorded an excellent win over Newport United and the 'A' XV. defeated Chippenham 'A'.

Leslie Moores.

The evergreen 'A' XV. Captain, Leslie Moores, is making a good recovery from the leg injury received at Bristol a fortnight ago.

Leslie is doing an excellent job, with the 'A' XV. His first class experience has proved very helpful to the youngsters.

The Laws of our game.

Players and officials are reminded of the "Laws Discussion" on Tuesday, January 14th at 8.15 p.m. in the Club House.

Did YOU know ?

The more the laws are studied the more light is shed on their implications. The "Don'ts" in rugby are really comparatively few. A player may not pass forward, prevent the ball being put fairly into the scrummage, lie on the ball, handle the ball directly after a tackle, or be or remain offside.

Did you know that a Captain may choose a scrum although the referee has awarded his team a penalty kick? A scrum half can choose which side of the scrummage he puts the ball in, but having chosen, he is not allowed to change sides.

Next Week, January 4th, 1958.

BATH v. LEICESTER

Kick-off 2.45 p.m.

Tonight.

Members are cordially invited to meet the players and officials of both sides in the Club House after the game. Refreshments are of course available and Drummer C. R. Bailey will again provide excellent music.

Today's referee is Mr. E. C. Honey, Oxfordshire.
