Welcome

THERE are so many ways of kicking off a season but can there be a better way than playing against the Club that is currently not only holder of the Pilkington Cup, but also the champion of the Courage League.

The Barbarian Club is 'delighted to have this opportunity to return to Bath – it was 100 years ago in 1894 that we first played a match here so it is a Centenary of a sort, as it is for this Recreation Ground. Two more games were played in the 1890's but there have been no fixtures between us this century. Our connection instead has been with the Bath players and out of a total of 36 whose first game for the Barbarians was as a Bath player no fewer than 26 have been invited during the last 15 years and we have been very thankful for their efforts and grateful to the Bath Club for enabling this to be so.

Bath have yet to win any of the three matches that have been played but today's XV require no additional incentive as undoubtedly they will wish to start their season in the manner that they so triumphantly finished the last.

Many thanks to the players on the pitch today, some have travelled thousands of miles to be here and to participate in what everyone hopes will prove to be a memorable match. Thanks also to the Bath Officials who have put so much preparatory work into this special occasion. Finally our thanks are due to the Barbarians Club sponsor, Scottish Amicable, who are also sponsoring this match and may their Amicable Gesture of £300 for each Barbarian try be called upon to make yet another sizeable contribution for the benefit of Youth Rugby in England.
