Welcome

The Orrell players, officials and supporters always enjoy what has become an annual trip to the ancient City of Bath even though, up to now, the men from Edge Hall Road have tasted only defeat at the famous Recreation Ground. In this latter respect, at least, we stand in some very distinguished company!!

We enjoy the friendly banter and respect the Bath supporters as being among the most knowledgeable in the country. The players relish the challenge as victory at the Bath fortress would be sweet indeed. Our comparatively new look team, under the astute leadership of Dewi Morris is taking shape nicely and we never go into a game without honestly believing we can win it! Our narrow defeat (0-6) against Leicester last Saturday is ample evidence that Orrell is a force to be reckoned with. The games between Bath and Orrell have often been very close and we look forward to another exciting contest today.

Mike Slemen has joined Phil Moss in the coaching set up and the former British Lion is making attacking back-play his priority. Orrell have started, and intend to continue playing fast rucking rugby this season so the spectacular is always on the cards. Are we going to break our duck at the Rec this afternoon? Well its bound to happen sometime, so here's hoping!
