THE OLD MERCHANTS.

It is certain no London side has visited the Rec. more times than the Taylors whom we welcome once more to-day. We Bathonians know full well the fine hard game they will provide as they always have done since the days of their most famous forward R. Cove Smith who took the English side to South Africa some twenty-seven years ago. The Taylors are on their usual Easter Tour and were at Plymouth on Saturday. We have won the last two games here, last season by two tries scored by A. Lewis and Hambly and the season before somewhat easily by 3 goals, 4 tries to 1 penalty goal, 1 try. To-day we should be practically at full strength,—if all went well on Saturday—except that Self comes in for Addenbrooke who is home at Swansea.

LOOKING AHEAD.

With Easter so early we have more games than usual after the first holiday. There are however only two first home games, London Scottish and Moseley. Next Saturday there will be two games, the United v. Yeovil and after that Bath Combination Colts will play Somerset Colts. There will be two games again on April 28th, when Bath Schools will play Weston Boys before the United and Chippenham game. Then on April 7th, when the Scottish come here it has been suggested that Avonvale would like to transfer their game with our A's from Bathford to the Rec. If Avonvale agree—the suggestion is simply to give Juniors the chance of playing on the Rec.—this game will be played before the Scottish game. And then of course there are the 7's commencing on April 23rd. The suggestion that an Old Crocks' game be sandwiched between the semi-final of the 7's is not quite new. In April, 1929, such a game was played—Old Crocks v. Bath A., the Crock's side being S. G. U. Considine, C. Whittaker, H. Richardson, J. Russell, L. F. Burt, L. V. Burt, H. Vowles, L. J. Richardson, C. Mannings, R. Chaddock, F. Russell, E. Hodges, L. Humphries, G. Woodward and N. Blake. The Richardson's and Ern. Hodges are probably on the ground this afternoon. Has anyone asked them to start training? Billy Fear says he would rather watch.

G. V. Wynne Jones' first game for Bath was v. Clifton in October, 1933, when the team was R. Banks, N. Matthews, W. H. Moncrieffe, G. V. W. Jones, W. E. Hancock, D. Davies, C. E. Gough, B. C. Barber, I. Brooks, S. Weeks, J. Jones, P. Moon, D. Crichton Miller, M. J. Minto, H. Oak.
