HAIL THE SARACENS

WHEN we played Saracens two years ago it was a turning point for both Clubs. Saracens' 9 - 7pts victory helped deny us the League title and simply ignited ever increased commitment to ensure that the following season we secured the Courage Cup.

For Saracens it signalled the departure of coach, captain and key players.

Our meeting last season at the Saracens' Ground was a prelude to the presentation of the cup to Stuart Barnes by Captain Mike Pearey, RN, RFU President.

Last season their young side strode the tightrope of relegation and commendably reached sixth place.

This season they have been a revelation and at fourth in the League are the highest placed London Club.

Saracens are not to be underrated. They have already beaten Harlequins, Wasps and Rosslyn Park.

They are the Club everyone likes to visit socially. Easy prey for marauding neighbours, they nevertheless keep producing good players and have that inestimable quality of a great Club spirit and character.

The writer recollects—when as a youngster living in digs in North London, playing for Saracens' 3rd XV with the Pot Pie Supper to follow the match—was not only the highlight of the week, but the culinary highspot, too.
