Nottingham fight relegation fears

WHEN Nottingham last visited the Rec on Saturday, 30th November 1991 it was a Cup match and our visitors were badly hit with injuries. Only three of that team are expected to be playing today.

Chris Gray, their Scottish International, and captain is expected to be in action and hopefully, Gary Reece. Also Stuart Cotter, centre, and Matthew Greenwood, No. 6, both "B" Internationals together with No. 7 Martin Pepper, captain of England Students and Guy Gregory of the Students at outside-half.

Clifton Jones, a Bathonian will be at centre.

Alan Davies, who has done such a great job with Wales in helping to restore national confidence will be at the Rec today giving every help to Neil Mantell, the present Nottingham coach.

Only last season Nottingham were just beaten by Harlequins in the Cup semi-final. Tony Butcher, Nottingham's chairman says, "We are up against it this season — we've got Rosslyn Park and Northampton at home and Orrell and Bath away!

We badly want to stay up, believe me. Wouldn't it be something if we can do Bath a good turn and end the season with an away win at Orrell! Anyway, we always look forward to playing at Bath."

Three seasons ago, Nottingham came to the Rec as underdogs and gave us a fright at a vital stage in the season! So they never give up hope. We are in the home stretch now and want that title. Nottingham are intent on staying alive in Division One. Each team to it's own — so here's to a great game.

WELCOME TO ALL PLAYERS, SUPPORTERS AND OFFICIALS FROM NOTTINGHAM.
