OUR GUESTS

Swansea aspire to be "The Best"

LAST season they were denied the "Double" by Llanelli losing 16 points to seven in the Cup Final. However, they are the "Proud Peacocks" of the Heineken League, as last year's winners with 60 tries in 18 matches. They also scooped the Snelling Sevens, beating Bridgend 26 points to 18 in the final.

Their correct title is Swansea Cricket & Football Club (Founded in 1873), and it was indeed St. Helens Cricket square which witnessed the almost heartstopping excitement of the first 36 runs off a six ball over by Garfield Sobers on the last day of August 1968.

Swansea's climate can fairly be described as "maritime" and the air is particularly bracing when fanned by south westerlies sweeping in via Mumbles Head. However, I am not propounding any theory that Swansea players run so fast to keep warm — it's just that it sometimes looks that way!

Speed and super fitness has certainly paid dividends, as the Club's current form is testimony. This year's Heineken League is an exciting race between Cardiff, Swansea and Llanelli. On Saturday 30th January, Swansea achieved a vital and historic 18 points to eight victory against close rivals Neath. It was their first win at the "Fortress Gnoll" for twelve years. Swansea beat Pontypool 38-30 last Saturday, and most significantly Llanelli beat Cardiff 18-13 in front of the Cardiff faithful. There are crucial games ahead and Swansea play Cardiff at home on the last Saturday in the League season, but as coach Mike Ruddock anticipated some weeks ago: "... and then only Cardiff stand in the Whites way, but they have to come to Swansea and no-one wins at St. Helens these days."

The current League positions as hereunder:

	P	W	D	L	For	Against	Pts
Cardiff.....	17	15	0	2	520	423	30
Swansea.....	17	15	0	2	463	341	30
Llanelli.....	16	13	1	2	547	373	27
Neath.....	16	10	0	6	329	274	20
