BATH v. LLANELLI

It's Hello this evening to The Scarlets.

Stradey Park is their superb rugby home, among the best equipped rugby grounds in British rugby, and home to some of the most supportive followers in the Game.

Now it's Heineken league days in Wales, with the Scarlets seeking honours in the premier division. Last weekend, a frustrating time for Llanelli, their cup encounter with rivals Pontypridd was postponed. But we all know Llanelli's cup reputation and we wish them well.

Llanelli are among our oldest Welsh fixtures, in fact our joint story began in the late 1900s. It is of course the Rag Doll game too (a touch of the unique), and the origins . . . well, the story is told in today's programme.

Talking of programme matters . . . do we have a Cartoonist out there on the terraces? And would he or she be willing to provide us with cartoons for the Prog'? Do let us know (just send a message to us at BATH FOOTBALL CLUB, RECREATION GROUND, BATH). You might like to send us an actual cartoon (with a rugby theme). Whatever, we would like to hear from you.

International day tomorrow, with Jeremy and Richard in action for England, and Webbie' among the reserves. We wish 'em the best.

At the time of writing, the match against Ebbw Vale was some six hours away, so we hope that the Boys enjoyed themselves. We have little doubt that they will enjoy the action against The Scarlets tonight. Along with the welcome to Llanelli, we know too, the importance of maintaining the status of Anglo-Welsh rugby, which at its best provides some of the keenest competition a side could ever wish for.

We'll end here . . . and hand matters over to the lads on the Park. Have a great game lads.

Harry W. Barstow
