Brian McLaughlin

Brian McLaughlin joined Ulster Rugby as Head Coach in July 2009 with over 15 years experience of coaching at all levels throughout the game.

Brian was part of the successful Irish U21 coaching team that won two triple crowns in 1996 and 1998 and in September 2005 he took up the role of specialist skills coach with Ireland, a position he held until April 2008, helping the team to win the Triple Crown in both 2006 and 2007.
