THE OLD BOYS OF CHRIST'S HOSPITAL.

We extend a very hearty welcome to our old friends, "The Old Blues." They have visited us regularly on Boxing Day for over twenty years, and always play good open rugby to the delight of our supporters. Our own player Dennis Silk is an old "Blue Coat" boy, and whilst he is not in our side today, we look forward to seeing him regularly from now on.

EXETER.

It was a bitter disappointment to us all on Saturday last not to have a game on the Rec. We did not hear until approx. 1.30 p.m. on Saturday that Exeter were fogbound at Taunton, and had turned back. No doubt the Club will be hearing from them about this most unfortunate happening.

To our three Captains, all the Players and Members of the Bath F.C., I extend on behalf of the Management Committee our very best wishes for the New Year, which I trust will have brighter prospects for us all.
