In entertaining Combe Down to-day, as I have said before, the United are hosts to one of Bath's most successful junior clubs. They have always given the United a close game. Whether they can hold the United which gave such a display last week, we shall see.

Praise to the United for their game last week anyhow. Praise to the forwards, to halves and three's, not forgetting the fullback, whose only effort of note, if he will excuse a legpull, was that he spoilt a splendid display of "goal kicking." Praise to the goalkicker and to the scorers of the tries, and praise to the defeated who hardly deserved such a "whopping."

But keep it up United, less this praise changes to something not half so pleasant. You set a standard last week by which you shall be judged in future.
