Welcome to Weston.

To-day we extend a hearty welcome to the second string of the Weston-super-Mare R.F.C. and if they extend our United as did their first XV. our first XV. in the first game of the season, they will indeed be welcome visitors. They come to us as a certain unknown quantity regarding actual playing strength, but I am sure they will be all out to lower our United's flag. Equally so will our lads be keen to see their flag kept flying and all we hope is that the ball will be given plenty of air and a good game no matter what the result, must follow.

Whilst this game is taking place at the Rec., the first XV. will be trying conclusions with the world famous Harlequins in London. Let's hope there will be a return to the Bristol form. We've never beaten the 'Quins in town, what about it?

Next week the first XV. returns to the Rec. with a grand game against the United Services from Portsmouth. Last season we won at Portsmouth by 14 points to 11 points and I think this was Bill Donnelly's first appearance for the 1st XV. Let us hope he will be fit enough to appear at the Rec. The kick-off is at 3 p.m. V.
