OUR VISITORS FROM NEWPORT.

Once again whilst the first XV's do battle, the second XV's of two clubs meet at Bath. One has heard it said that it is almost a pity that games like these have to be arranged thus, but pity the poor Match Secretary. His is a most difficult task, and, if members only saw the voluminous correspondence with which he has to deal and the snags which arise from time to time in fitting all the Clubs, we should all be grateful to have the lists we do.

We extend a very warm welcome to the Newport United XV. They come from a Club which can always be regarded as one which has always had the most cordial relations with the Bath Club and incidentally a Club which plays grand Rugger. Our own team will have to be at the top of its form to beat these Newport lads, and it will indeed be a feather in the Bath United's cap if they can succeed.

The strength of a Club can always be judged from the strength of its Second XV's and bearing in mind the known strength of the Newport First XV, one can assume that its Second XV, can be regarded as relatively strong. We also know that the Newport Club has long been one of the strongest in Wales and so we look forward to a grand game again to-day. At the time of writing the weather is grand and with a drying wind, the pitch, with the absence of any more rain, should be in fine fettle. Thus everything is set for an excellent game and may the better side win.
