THE SENIOR SERVICE

We are pleased to welcome the Rugby Footballers representing Her Majesty's Navy. The City of Bath has a close association with the Navy and many fine footballers have played for the Navy and the Bath Club. Names which come to mind are Joe Nudds, Joe Bailey, Roy Titchen and John Jacobsen.

The Navy side use these Club fixtures as pipe openers for their Services' Tournament and today they have selected a strong side.

As for the Bath team—we have had a most disappointing start to 1976, with defeats by Leicester and London Welsh. Although our boys have tried to run the ball, they have met with little success. The game has become highly competitive—there is only one winner and who wants to be second anyway!

MINI RUGBY

The Mini Rugby organised during the School Christmas holidays was a great success. It is hoped to organise another session during the Easter holidays.

GRAND HOLIDAY DRAW

Tickets now on sale from Committee Members and Players. The Draw will take place on Wednesday, 25th February, 1976 at a Social Evening in the Clubhouse. Please return your counterfoils and cash as soon as possible.
