Moseley from 'Brum'.

Our best thanks are accorded our visitors today, and we extend to them a very hearty welcome. The weather prevented both the games here on 25th January, and the one away on 22nd February. But our Birmingham friends agreed to come today and we may be quite sure they will give us a good game. Before the severe weather they were having one of their best seasons for many years, indeed they have done almost as well as Bath and of course that means a lot. They are a very old established club and fifty or more years ago they were one of the best known clubs in the country, and on their showing this season, they still are. They certainly are to be congratulated on keeping the rugby game very much alive in such a soccer stronghold as Birmingham. In seasons just prior to the war I doubt if there was any away match the Bath players enjoyed more than their visit to the Reddings. In those good old days we once had a special train on our own and took hundreds of supporters. And strangely enough we have experienced some wretched weather there. I think the worst conditions under which I have ever seen Bath play was at the Reddings. There had been rain when we left Bath - heavy snow when we reached New Street, and then a rapid thaw. The ground was terrible, but we just managed to win. Several times in these games, Peter Cranmer and our Gerry, colleagues in so many internationals, have been in opposition.

Conviviality.

But in rain, snow, frost or sunshine, the Moseley people always saw to it that there was a real hard game and a real good time for everyone afterwards. Yes! our visitors are firm believers that a little entertaining and conviviality after the match are all for the good of the game and it's good to hear that the Bath Club are now thinking the same.

Briefs.

1. Our points are still on the wrong side - 255 for, 258 against.
2. Our best thanks to the Stewards for their help during the Seven-a-sides, and to the Bath Referee Society, without whose co-operation it would be impossible to run the show.
3. Bristol away next Wednesday, and Gloucester here on Saturday.
4. Yes! with Jones for Gloucester and Lumsden for Bath, there may be dropped goals!
