Devon Services.

To-day we welcome our good friends from Devonport and we know well their reputation as a Rugger side. One thing is certain and that is that we shall have a good, clean, hard game with the result a secondary matter. The mention of their name brings to mind such players as Marine Webb, W. G. E. Luddington, our own Joe Bailey, who it should be remembered came to the forefront of the Rugger World by playing in their side and subsequently playing for the Navy. The reason for their visit to-day, as the original fixture was made for Devonport, is that their ground is receiving attention and is not yet ready for play. Consequently they asked if they could come to Bath and the home Committee were delighted to acquiesce. Here's to a grand game.

The County Trial.

It is pleasing to note that of those Bath Players taking part in the Somerset County Trial on Tuesday evening last, K. O'Shaughnessy, Arthur Burcombe and Michael Sutton, the Bath Vice-Captain, have all been selected to play for Somerset v. the British Police XV. at Taunton on September 30th at 5.30 p.m. Thus Michael Sutton joins the select band of Bath Players who have represented Somerset both at Cricket and Rugby Football.

The United.

Following the game v. the Services, Bath United play Yeovil, an up and coming side, who it is understood have beaten the Somerset Police. Considering Weston-super-Mare could only draw with the Police, Bath United have a tough nut to crack.

It is hoped that a goodly number of spectators will remain to cheer on the United. They deserve support both vocal and subsequently monetary when they play their own single home matches.
