Welcome to Weston.

Today we extend a very hearty welcome to the Weston-super-Mare "A" XV., who are comparative newcomers to the United fixture list.

Since the war the Weston-super-Mare Club has forged ahead and have some very excellent performances to their credit, not the least of which occurred this year when they defeated the Bristol Club at the Memorial Ground – no mean feat this ! It therefore follows that the Club is in a healthy state, and as the strength of a club is always to be judged by the strength of its reserves, one feels that we can look forward to an excellent game today at the Rec., Bath. I say the Rec., Bath, because as you all must know, that whilst the United is playing the Weston 2nd String, the first XV's of the two Clubs are doing battle at the Rec., Weston-super-Mare.

The Game v. Newbury.

Reverting to last week's encounter with Newbury, I feel sure that all patrons must have been impressed with Newbury's play, and also the strength of their forwards. It is seldom that our own United pack has been so effectively held, and I am sure that our lads will be the first to congratulate the Newbury eight. As they are grand chaps on the field, so they proved equally grand fellows off the field and with Devizes they thoroughly enjoyed themselves at the Clubroom on Saturday evening last.

Next Week's Games.

With the start of the County Championship matches on Saturday next, Somerset playing Cornwall, and the neighbouring Counties being engaged, it looks as though some of United XV. will be in First XV. against the Somerset Police at Bath. Woodhouse, who gave such an excellent performance for the United XV. against Newbury, was of course the Dorset and Wilts. full-back last year, and I note that Fred Hill has been picked for Gloucestershire. I imagine too that one or two of our First XV. may be in the Somerset side, so that there should be a ding-dong game at the Rec. against the Policemen. Remember, they defeated Devonport Services at Devonport earlier this season. The kick-off will be at 3.15 p.m.
