BATH v. SOUTH WALES POLICE

With Saturday's John Player cup triumph still much in mind, it is now our pleasure to welcome the South Wales Police to the Rec. And what impressive strides this club has made in recent years. Now able to compete among the best in their great rugby stronghold of Wales, they field a team full of talent and maturity. In addition, they add a real Anglo-Welsh flavour to this evening's game.

But our programme could hardly be complete without mention of last Saturday's John Player win. Following on from recent heartening victories, it seems that the club players have stamped their character everywhere, and shrugging off that spate of injuries and lapse of pre-Christmas form, have returned to top form again. Indeed, the tactical play of that cup win earned high praise from many quarters, along with the calibre of both running and handling.

To skipper Roger Spurrell and all the club players—'congratulations'. And how pleasing too that Chris Lilley's United and the Spartans are back to winning ways, the contribution of both sides being so vital an element towards Bath's success.

But finally we again express our pleasure in tonight's visit from the South Wales Police. We know that they will be tough opposition. So we look forward to seeing them in action and then to meeting them in person in the clubhouse after the game.

H.B.

One of our patrons, John Flagg, has donated, as he did last Saturday, a bottle of Scotch whisky for tonight's lucky programme prize. Thank you, John, for your generosity.

Applications for seats on the special Club train to Twickenham on March 31st for the County Championship Final are invited this evening.
